Nature of Action

Civil Rights Suit Under 42 U.S.C. § 1983
and California Constitution Article 1,
Section 1

Filing Date: November 27, 2007
Trial Date: TBD

COME NOW Plaintiffs, by and through counsel, to show the Court the following:

I.

INTRODUCTION

4       1. The Governor of California recently signed into law Senate Bill 777, which will 5 take effect on January 11, 2008. Senate Bill 777, in conjunction with the California Penal Code, 6 introduces a new definition of “gender” into the California Education Code and is part of an
7 overall nondiscrimination scheme applicable to schools in California. Senate Bill 777 recklessly 8 abandons the traditional understanding of biological sex in favor of an elusive definition that is 9 unconstitutionally vague. This lawsuit facially challenges the redefinition of the term “gender”
10 as it will be impossible for school administrators and educators to enforce this new definition.
11 Further, it will be impossible for administrators and educators to know whether they themselves
12 are violating the nondiscrimination provisions of the Education Code or the Penal Code.
13 Additionally, the special treatment intended for a select few students through the enforcement of 14 Senate Bill 777 will result in the violation of the privacy rights of the remainder of students not 15 targeted for special treatment under Senate Bill 777. For these reasons, Plaintiffs bring this 16 lawsuit based upon the prohibition against vague enactments as established in the Federal 17 Constitution and the right to privacy founded in the California Constitution.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

20        2. This action arises under the First and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States
21 Constitution, the Civil Rights Act (42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1985), and the California Constitution
22 Article 1, Section 1.

23       3. This Court has jurisdiction over this case pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and 1343,
24 this being a suit in equity authorized by law to be brought to redress the deprivation, under color
25 of law, statute, regulation, or custom and usage of the state of California, of rights, privileges and 26 immunities secured by the laws and Constitution of the United States, particularly the First and 27 Fourteenth Amendments of the Constitution of the United States pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

4. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over this case pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §

1 1367 because this complaint sets forth claims arising under federal law, and the District Court
2 may therefore adjudicate state law claims that are transactionally related to the federal claim.

3       5.     Venue is proper in the Southern District of California under 28 U.S.C. § 1391,
4 because several Defendants maintain offices in this district, and a substantial part of the actions
5 or omission giving rise to this case occurred, or will occur, within the Southern District of 6 California.

7       6. This Court is authorized to grant the relief requested under 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201-02
8 and Rule 65 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for the purpose of determining the following
9 question and actual controversy between the parties: whether Senate Bill 777 and California's 10 definition of "gender" under the Penal Code and Education Code violate the prohibition against 11 vague enactments under the First Amendment to the United States Constitution as applied to the 12 state under the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States
13 Constitution,

14       7. This Court is authorized to grant Plaintiffs' prayer for relief regarding costs, 15 including reasonable attorneys' fees, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.

III.

10 the Senate Bill 777 into law and is responsible to uphold and enforce the laws of California, 11 including Senate Bill 777 and California's prohibition of discrimination against persons on the 12 basis of "gender" as defined in California law.

13 11. Defendant EDMUND G. BROWN, JR., at all times relevant herein was and is the 2 material to this case in his or her official capacity and under color of state law.

3 IV.

4 STATEMENT OF FACTS

5 14. The California Secretary of State chaptered Senate Bill 777 into law on October 12, 6 2007, after it was signed by Governor Schwarzenegger. Senate Bill 777 will take effect on 7 January 11, 2008.

8 15. Pursuant to Senate Bill 777, California Education Code § 220 will be amended to 9 add "gender" and "sexual orientation" expressly to the classifications of protected groups and 10 remove the term "sex" as a classification. Education Code § 220 will read as follows: "No 11 person shall be subjected to discrimination on the basis of disability, gender, nationality, race or 12 ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, or any other characteristic that is contained in the 13 definition of hate crimes set forth in Section 422.55 of the Penal Code in any program or activity
14 conducted by an educational institution that receives, or benefits from, state financial assistance 15 or enrolls pupils who receive state student financial aid."

16 16. Currently, Education Code § 220 provides as follows: "No person shall be 17 subjected to discrimination on the basis of sex, ethnic group identification, race, national origin, 18 religion, color, mental or physical disability, or any actual or perceived characteristic that is 19 contained in the definition of hate crimes set forth in Section 422.55 of the Penal Code in any 20 program or activity conducted by an educational institution that receives, or benefits from, state 21 financial assistance or enrolls pupils who receive state student financial aid."

22 17. Senate Bill 777 redefines the term "gender" by adding Education Code § 210.7, 23 which will read: "'Gender' means sex, and includes a person's gender identity and gender 24 related appearance and behavior whether or not stereotypically associated with the person's 25 assigned sex at birth."

26 18. Senate Bill 777 will eliminate the biological understanding of the term "gender"
27 and will repeal Education Code § 212, which currently defines "sex" as "the biological condition 28 or quality of being a male or female human being."

1       19. Senate Bill 777 adds Education Code § 212.6, which defines "sexual orientation" to 2 mean "heterosexuality, homosexuality, or bisexuality."

3       20. Senate Bill 777 requires educators to avoid discriminating against any individual 4 employee, student, or other person based upon that individual's self-identification of being a 5 male or female, regardless of his or her actual sex. This requires educators to have 6 foreknowledge of the private mental impressions, thoughts, and disabilities of each person with 7 whom the educational institution comes into contact.

8       21. Senate Bill 777 places educators in the impossible position of (1) reading the minds
9 of individuals to determine the individual's self-defined sexual identity so as not to inadvertently 10 discriminate against an individual based upon their self-defined sex and (2) protecting the 11 privacy and safety of all students from persons of the opposite sex,. There is no limitation on 12 how often a person may change their self-defined sex and there are no applicable standards upon 13 which educators may rely in order to implement Senate Bill 777.

14       22. Senate Bill 777 also amends Education Code § 51500 to state as follows: "No 15 teacher shall give instruction nor shall any school district sponsor any activity that promotes a 16 discriminatory bias because of a characteristic listed in Section 220." This provision is 17 unconstitutionally vague because it places an educator in the impossible position of knowing 18 whether an instruction or activity "promotes a discriminatory bias." For example, any 19 curriculum or instruction that pre-assumes the existence of a mother and father in a family
20 relationship might be construed to promote a discriminatory bias against persons choosing 21 alternative relationships. A violation of this provision could cause educators to be disciplined by 22 their employers or cause educators to be guilty of discrimination.

23       23. Educators are also in the vulnerable position of being in violation of the California
24 Penal Code should they fail to guess properly at an individual's self-defined sex. California
25 Penal Code § 422.55(a)-(b) establishes the definition of a hate crime:

26               (a) "Hate crime" means a criminal act committed, in whole or in part,
27               because of one or more of the following actual or perceived 28               characteristics of the victim: (1) Disability. (2) Gender. (3) Nationality.

(4) Race or ethnicity. (5) Religion. (6) Sexual orientation. (7)
Association with a person or group with one or more of these actual or perceived characteristics.

4 (b) "Hate crime" includes, but is not limited to, a violation of Section 422.6.

5        24. Like the California Education Code, California Penal Code § 422.56(c) defines 6 "gender" to mean "sex, and includes a person's gender identity and gender related appearance
7 and behavior whether or not stereotypically associated with the person's assigned sex at birth."

8        25. Further, California Penal Code § 422.6(a) places an extremely broad category of 9 actions that would amount to a crime:

10 (a) No person, whether or not acting under color of law, shall by force or 11 threat of force, willfully injure, intimidate, interfere with, oppress, or 12 threaten any other person in the free exercise or enjoyment of any right or 13 privilege secured to him or her by the Constitution or laws of this state or 14 by the Constitution or laws of the United States in whole or in part 15 because of one or more of the actual or perceived characteristics of the 16 victim listed in subdivision (a) of Section 422.55.

17        26. As public school educators are responsible in their normal functions to separate 18 males and females in school restrooms, locker rooms, and other facilities for the sake of 19 student/employee privacy and public safety, educators and administrators will be in criminal
20 violation of the Penal Code if they physically or forcefully interfere with, or threaten to interfere 21 with, any student or employee seeking access to facilities traditionally reserved to the opposite 22 sex, whether by intimidation, oppression, or threat of suspension.,

23        27. Unless and until the above-referenced laws are enjoined, Plaintiffs will suffer 24 irreparable harm to their federal and state constitutional rights to due process and privacy.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of the Due Process Clause of

The Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution

28 Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate herein by reference all preceding paragraphs.

6        29. Education Code § 220 as amended by Senate Bill 777, Education Code § 210.7 as 7 added by Senate Bill 777, Education Code § 212.6 as added by Senate Bill 777, Education Code
8 § 51500 as amended by Senate Bill 777, the removal of Education Code § 212, and the related 9 statutory scheme are void for vagueness because their prohibitions are not clearly defined.

10       30.   Penal Code §§ 420.6(a), 420.55(a)(2) and (6), 420.55(b) and 420.56(c) are void for 11      vagueness because their prohibitions are not clearly defined.

12        31. The laws fail to give a person of ordinary intelligence a reasonable opportunity to 13 know what is prohibited, so that he or she may act accordingly. Further, the laws are vague 14 because, first, they may trap the innocent by not providing fair warning; second, they 15 impermissibly delegate basic policy matters to policemen, judges, and juries for resolution on an 16 ad hoc and subjective basis, with attendant dangers of arbitrary and discriminatory application;
17 and, third, they abut sensitive areas of basic First Amendment freedoms and in their operation
18 inhibit the exercise of those freedoms.

19       32. Defendants have no compelling reason to justify these vague enactments, and said 20 enactments are not narrowly tailored to further a state interest.

21       33. The laws and Defendants' enforcement thereof violate the Due Process Clause of 22 the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs respectfully pray that the Court grant the equitable and legal relief set forth hereinafter in the prayer for relief.

VI.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

California Constitution, Article 1, Section 1

34. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate herein by reference all preceding paragraphs.

35. Article 1, Section 1, of the California Constitution provides as follows: "All people are by nature free and independent and have inalienable rights. Among these are enjoying and defending life and liberty, acquiring, possessing, and protecting property, and pursuing and obtaining safety, happiness, and privacy."

36. Plaintiffs' members, inclusive of public school employees and students, are entitled to safety and privacy. The laws specified in the first cause of action are in contravention to the rights of safety and privacy and amount to a serious invasion of those interests. Particularly, Plaintiffs' members are entitled to safety and privacy in restrooms, locker rooms, and other public facilities where males and females are systematically separated based upon the reasonable expectation of privacy – privacy interests which have long been respected and even celebrated between males and females.

37. Unless the above-referenced laws are restrained and enjoined by this Court, there is a substantial danger that Plaintiffs' members will be subjected to extreme embarrassment, humiliation, anxiety, intimidation, and emotional distress. Further, there is a substantial danger to the physical safety of Plaintiffs' members.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs respectfully pray that the Court grant the equitable and legal relief set forth hereinafter in the prayer for relief.

vi.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray for judgment as follows:

A. That this Court issue Preliminary and Permanent Injunctions enjoining Defendants, Defendants' agents and employees, and all persons in active concert or participation with them from enforcing the laws set forth in the first cause of action;

B. That this Court render a Declaratory Judgment declaring that the laws set forth in the first cause of action violate the First and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution:

C. That this Court render a Declaratory Judgment declaring that the laws set forth in the second cause of action violate the California Constitution Article 1, Section 1;

1 D. That this Court adjudge, decree, and declare the rights and other legal relations
2 with the subject matter here in controversy, in order that such declaration shall have the force
3 and effect of final judgment;

4 E. That this Court retain jurisdiction of this matter for the purpose of enforcing this 5 Court's order;

6 F. That this Court grant to Plaintiffs reasonable costs and expenses of this action, 7 including attorneys' fees, in accordance with 42 U.S.C. § 1988; and 8 G. That this Court grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and 9 proper.
